

New director for legal firm

A LEGAL firm has welcomed a new addition for its newly expanded board of directors.

Hilary Meredith Solicitors Ltd in Wilmslow has strengthened its senior management team with the appointment of Mark Farrell as operations director.

Mark will take his place as a director on an enlarged main board at the business, which also now includes partner Grant Evatt.

Mark has extensive experience in the legal, claims management and financial services sectors. He joins Hilary Meredith Solicitors from Nationwide Claims Solutions, where he was also a director.

● Hilary Meredith

His previous roles also include being CEO at Beresfords Solicitors and managing director at Capita.

Mark also has extensive experience in the insurance sector, having worked at Aon and Royal and Sun Alliance.

Grant Evatt is a specialist military solicitor who joined Hilary Meredith Solicitors in 2013.

Hilary Meredith, CEO of the Water Lane company, said: "Mark comes with a wealth of operational and corporate experience and is a welcome addition to the firm and our main board.

"Since joining the firm in 2013, Grant has displayed a depth of knowledge in man management, leadership skills and strategic thinking to aid our growth and development.

"His background in the military and as a former marine has given him know-how above and beyond that of legal procedures."